The 12 + inch snow storm in Fort Worth caused the roof of the Rahr Brewery to collapse, causing considerable damage to the building's interior. Replacing the roof will take at least 90 days and more time will be required to put everything back together for private parties. After considering all options, we decided that we still want to have the fundraiser at the brewery. So, the new date for the Spring (now Fall) Fundraiser is September 18, 2010. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend in September. More information later in the year.
